Materials are paid now; client cash arrives later.

So he hands out cash - and every purchase stays untracked, unprotected, and invisible to lenders.

The purchase trail can become the credit file.

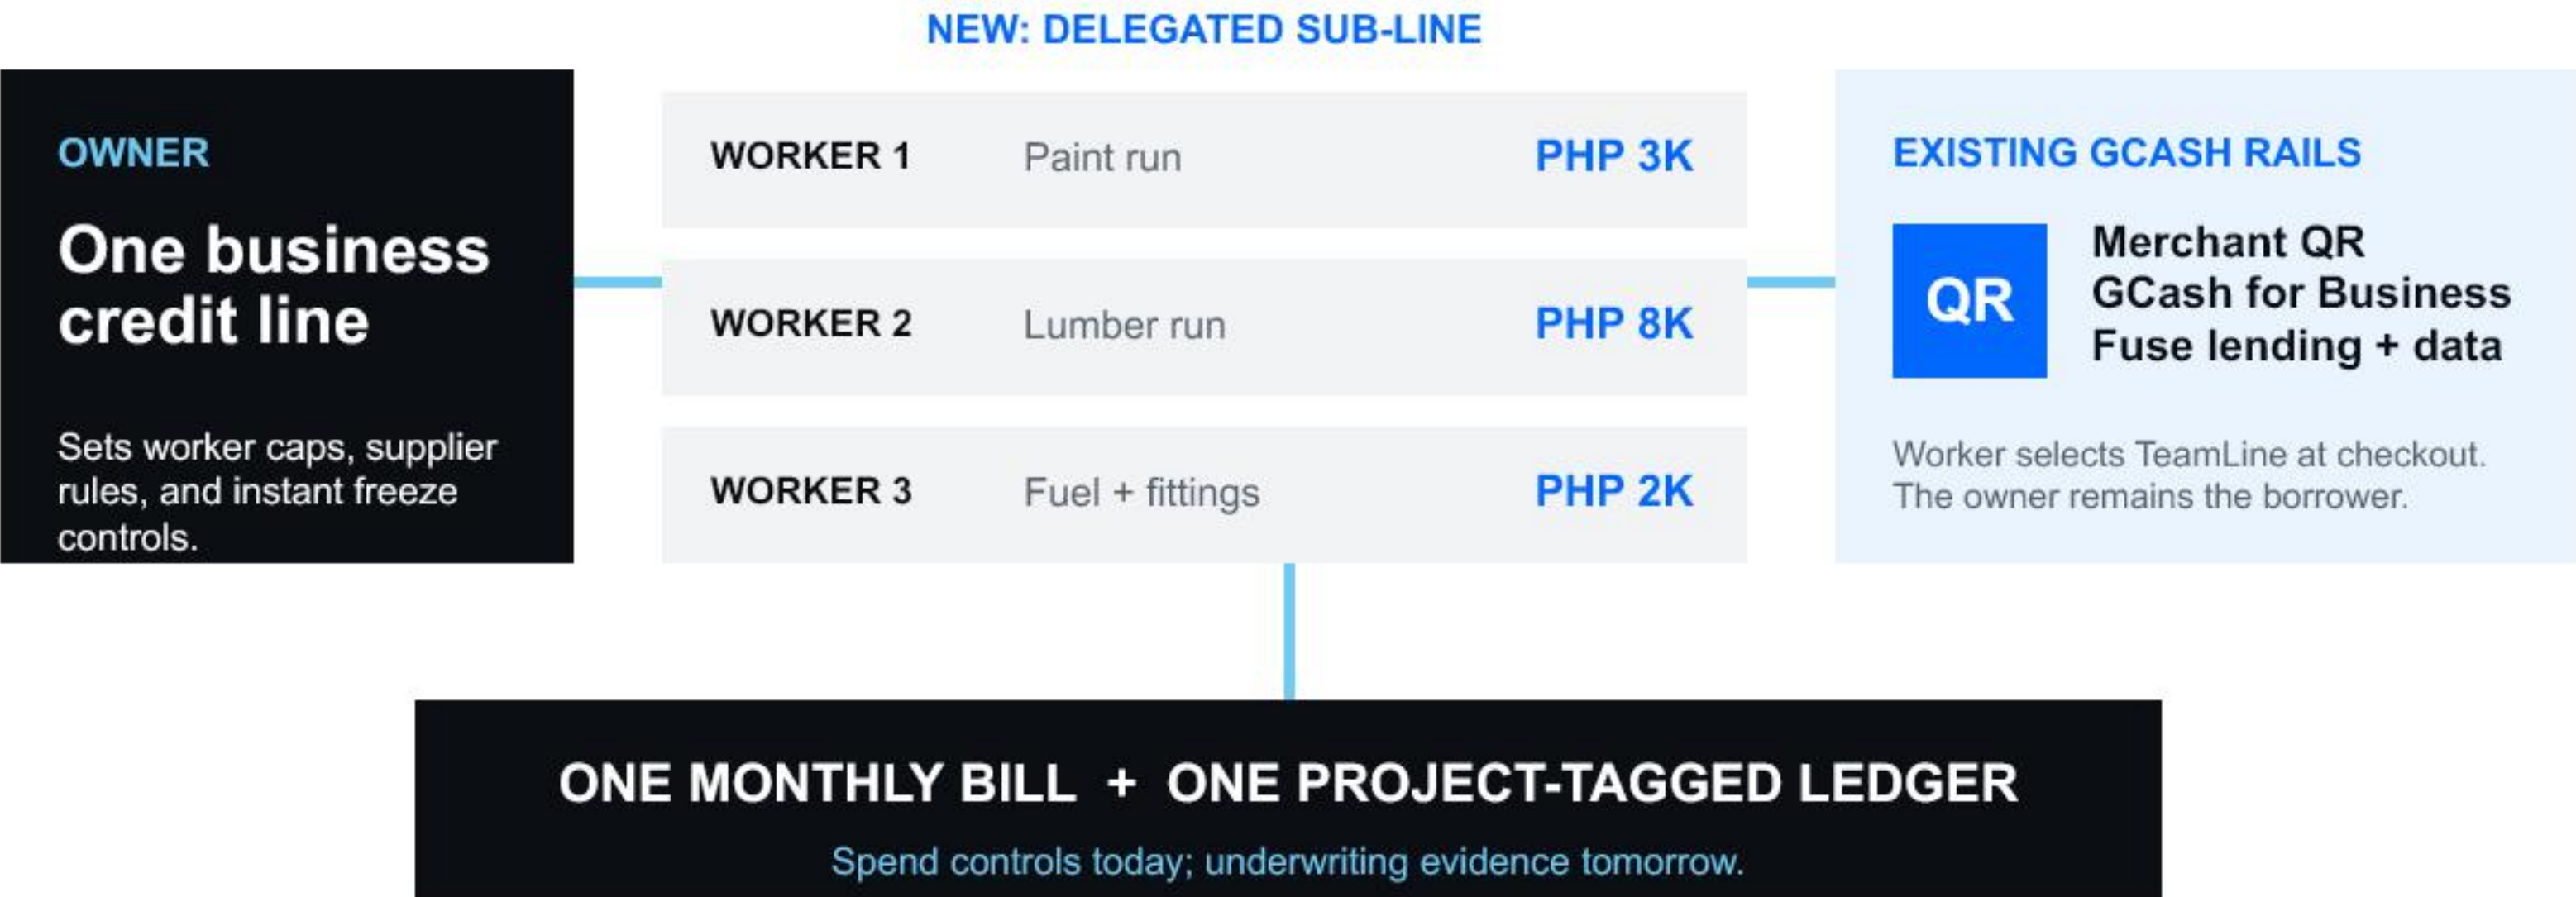

Stop moving his cash faster.

Let workers spend controlled credit on his behalf.

Every purchase does two jobs: it buys materials today and proves creditworthiness tomorrow.

GCash TeamLine splits one business credit line into controlled worker allowances.

PHASE 1: registered merchant QRs | PHASE 2: help personal-QR neighborhood stores become GCash merchants
